Our story

began with a simple idea:
to create exceptional food and drink experiences that stand apart from the rest.

REFINED EXCELLENCE IN EVERY BITE

At Seasoned, we are proud of our roots. We are Seasoned, not just in name, but in everything we do. Our talented team are rooted to our principles of expertise, quality and the pursuit of perfection, and our name embodies the essence of our journey. Much like an ingredient that is transformed through time and experience, we have refined our craft, polished our skills and enriched our services. With every client, customer and guest we serve, we continue to improve and evolve, drawing on our years of experience to deliver truly memorable experiences for everyone.

Over the years, our talented team has been admired for their passion and ability to deliver a personal, boutique service, no matter the scale. So, what sets us apart? Great food doesn't lie. It says everything you need to know about the quality of its ingredients and the skills and imagination of its maker. As one of the most established independent caterers, we have earned our seat at the table thanks to our unwavering commitment to quality.

From the very first interaction to the final bite of food, we ensure every aspect of our service is crafted to perfection. We take great pride in the fact that our services not only meet but exceed expectations, always evolving to remain relevant in a world that's constantly changing.

Being a force for good is at the heart of everything we do. Our approach is creative, imaginative and built around the idea of delivering positive impact - one that resonates, inspires and leaves a lasting mark. Whether we're working with our prestigious partner venues and exciting brands, or our local suppliers and purpose-led social enterprises, we create smiles, conversation and impact at every table - which is why we are trusted by businesses, brands and venues as their go-to caterer who always practices what they preach.
